IT CANNOT BE EMPHASIZED TOO STRONGLY OR TOO OFTEN THAT THIS GREAT NATION WAS FOUNDED NOT BY 'RELIGIONISTS' BUT BY CHRISTIANS—NOT ON RELIGION BUT ON THE GOSPEL OF JESUS CHRIST. FOR THIS VERY REASON, PEOPLES OF OTHER FAITHS HAVE BEEN AFFORDED ASYLUM, PROSPERITY AND FREEDOM OF WORSHIP HERE.

ATA Looking for Trucking Image Boosters

American Trucking Associations is seeking nominations for the ninth annual Mike Russell Trucking Industry Image Award.

The award honors trucking companies, state associations and suppliers who are creative in their approach to increasing positive awareness for the trucking industry. The award was named for the late Mike Russell, who as ATA vice president of public affairs was behind the public image campaign, "Good Stuff. Trucks Bring It."

Submissions for the award are evaluated by a panel of impartial judges based on creativity, execution and impact. Winners will be announced in October at the ATA Management Conference & Exhibition in Philadelphia. The deadline for submissions is September 9.

"Our industry has taken great strides to improve our image," said Bill Graves, ATA president and CEO, noting the relatively recent addition of the industrywide Trucking Moves America Forward image movement to its continuing Share the Road and America's Road Team programs. "The Mike Russell Trucking Industry Image Award recognizes people, companies and associations that go the extra mile to promote this industry that we are all so proud of."

ATA Sets Fall Meeting Date and TMC SuperTech

American Trucking Associations' Technology & Maintenance Council will hold its 2015 Fall Meeting TMC SuperTech technician skills competition on Sept. 21-25 at the Walt Disney Swan & Dolphin Resort in Orlando, Fla.

The Fall Meeting will have the theme Maintenance Today, Profit Tomorrow and will focus on the environmental, economic and regulatory challenges facing the industry.

The TMC SuperTech will be an opportunity to showcase the role of technicians within the industry and offers a chance for them to learn about the latest trends in trucking.

The TMC Fall Meeting will feature technical sessions covering topics like troubleshooting aftertreatment systems, electronic driver vehicle inspections and cybersecurity. It will also include smaller educational sessions on things like recruiting and mentorship to fuel system management and electronic issues.

There will be more than 100 task forces that will meet on opening day to work on recommended practices, information reports and position papers.

TMC's annual Fleet Talk will provide the opportunity for maintenance and equipment professionals to talk about related equipment problems. During the Town Meeting, the TMC Fleet Operators Forum will give the fleet executives a chance to address unresolved equipment issues they may have with manufacturers.

TMC's annual Industry Luncheon speaker will be Kenny Vieth, president and senior analyst for ACT Research, where he focuses on the heavy-truck and trailer markets.

In addition to the TMC SuperTech 2015 Technician Skills Competition, ATA will be expanding its National Student Technician Competition, TMC FutureTech 2015. The winners of both competitions will be announced at the TMC SuperTech 2015 Awards Luncheon, which is open to both contestants and meeting attendees.

Information and registration for the event is available at tmc@trucking.org.

Authorities Bust Russian CDL Scammers

Three Florida residents have been charged with conspiracy to aid and abet the unlawful production of commercial driver licenses.

Ellariy Medvednik, Natalia Dontsova, Adrian Salari, and Clarence Davis were affiliated Larex, Inc., a commercial truck driving school that marketed itself to Russian-speakers online. For $2,000 out of state individuals would contact Medvednik to arrange for Larex’s services.

They would then travel to Florida to obtain the CDL despite that fact that to obtain a Florida CDL a driver must first have a Florida driver’s license. Medvednik, Dontsova and Salari are charged with conspiring to provide false documentation that the individual’s resided with them so they could obtain Florida driver’s license.

After falsifying each individual’s residency, Larex then assisted them further by using covert communication equipment to provide students with answers to the written portion of the CDL Exam. For the vehicle inspection tests, basic control skills tests and road tests, Larex hired Davis, a third-party tester authorized by the State of Florida, to administer the tests, passing drivers who would have otherwise failed.

Davis received about $75 per student above his posted rate from Medvednik and at least 600 individuals were identified as having used Larex and Davis as a tester.

If convicted on all accounts, each defendant faces a maximum sentence of 30 years in prison. The case is being investigated by the Department of Transportation’s Office of the Inspector General, The FBI, Homeland Security and the Florida Highway Patrol.
